A Money Dispute Turns Deadly for a 23-Year-Old Man

A confrontation between two men erupts into a shooting in an Ahwatukee neighborhood. Neighbors hear gunfire and they find a man suffering from a gunshot wound.

Police were called to the area of 44th Street and Windsong Drive about a person shot Saturday night at around 10 p.m. When they got there, they found 23-year-old Thomas Marble suffering from a gunshot wound to the chest.

Witnesses told officers they heard multiple gunshots and when they looked outside, they saw a man on the ground bleeding. As officers were investigating, they detained another adult male who was involved in the shooting.

Officers learned Marble was confronting another male regarding a money dispute. During the confrontation, Marble is shot and collapses close to where the shooting occurred.

Marble was transported to a local hospital where he died from his injuries.

Investigators responded to the scene to gather evidence, talk with witnesses and follow up on every lead they uncover. The investigation remains active. No arrests have been made at this time.
