Fatal Traffic Collision Investigation

On September 26, 2021, just after 10:47 p.m., Phoenix Police responded to the area of 45th Avenue and Indian School Road regarding a call of a two-vehicle collision. When Officers arrived, they learned a Kia Soul was traveling south on 45th Avenue making a left turn onto Indian School Road when it collided with a Hyundai Sonata that was traveling west on Indian School Road.

The Kia had two adult occupants who were both transported to the hospital. The adult female passenger was pronounced deceased at the hospital. The Hyundai had six occupants. Three of the occupants from the backseat ran from the collision. One was located and taken to the hospital but left without receiving treatment. The other three occupants, including the driver were taken to a hospital for treatment.

The driver of the Kia did not display any signs or symptoms of impairment; however it is believed that impairment was a factor on behalf of the driver of the Hyundai. This investigation is ongoing.
