Fatal Traffic Collision Investigation

On November 3, 2021, at about 6:00 p.m., Phoenix Police responded to a vehicle collision in the area of 43rd Avenue and Cactus Road. Officers learned a silver GMC Yukon was eastbound and drove through a red signal light and collided with a silver Toyota Highlander, which then caused the highlander to strike a Toyota Camry. A BMW stopped nearby was struck by debris from the collision. The occupants of the Camry and the BMW were not seriously injured. Impairment and speed may be a factor for the driver of the Yukon.

The adult female driver of the Yukon was transported to a local hospital in critical condition.

The adult male driver of the of the Highlander was transported to a local hospital in critical condition. The adult male front seat passenger of the Highlander was transported to a local hospital and later pronounced deceased.

This investigation is ongoing.
