Mobile Fight Ends with One Man Dead

(February 13, 2023): Detectives are investigating a shooting that left one man dead and another injured after words were exchanged with occupants of another vehicle.

Phoenix Police officers were dispatched to an emergency call of a fight near 3900 West Osborn Road. When they arrived, they found a vehicle stopped in the roadway with three occupants. Two of the occupants were males and they were found suffering from gunshot wounds. The third occupant in the vehicle, an adult female, was unharmed.

Both men were transported to the hospital in critical condition. One of the men, 19-year-old Ramiro Melendez Lopez, later died from injuries at the hospital. The second man was stabilized and is expected to survive his injuries.

Detectives responded to the scene to conduct interviews and process the crimes scene. No arrests made. The Phoenix Police Department is asking anyone who information regarding this incident to please call Phoenix Police or Silent Witness if they wish to remain anonymous.
