Fatal Collision

Phoenix police are investigating a collision that has left one man dead, and another injured.

On June 1, 2022, around 4:15 a.m., Phoenix Police received a report of a collision with injuries in the area of 31st Avenue and Northern Avenue. Officers on scene learned that an SUV and a sedan were involved in the collision. Preliminary evidence at the scene suggests the SUV was traveling eastbound on Northern, when it drove left of center and struck a sedan traveling westbound. Both drivers were transported to local hospitals, where the driver of the sedan died from his injuries.

This remains an ongoing investigation.
