Detectives Investigate a Fatal Collision

Phoenix police detectives responded to the area of 2700 West Yorkshire Drive to investigate a fatal traffic collision that left an adult male passenger dead.

At about 1:20 p.m. on November 14, 2022, Phoenix police responded to a call of a vehicle collision involving two vehicles in the intersection of 27th Avenue and Yorkshire Drive. The vehicle which the victim passenger was riding in was making a left turn onto Yorkshire Drive from 27th Avenue when struck by the second vehicle traveling northbound.

The passenger for the turning vehicle was taken to a local hospital and pronounced deceased. The two drivers were both evaluated for impairment; however, no indications were seen.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation.
