Fatal Collision

Phoenix police detectives responded to 51st Avenue and Union Hills Drive to investigate a traffic collision involving a car and three motorcycles. The driver of the car was booked into jail. A 19-year-old motorcycle rider died from his injuries, and another rider suffered serious injuries.

In the early morning hour of July 31, 2022, Phoenix police responded to a call of a collision with injuries in the area of 51st Avenue and Union Hills Drive. Officers on scene learned that a car was going south on 51st Avenue and ran the red light. The car attempted to make a left turn at the intersection in the path of a group of four motorcycle riders. The motorcycle riders were going west on Union Hills Drive. The car collided with a motorcycle rider, who was later identified as 19-year-old, Tucker Jon Colby who died from his injuries. A second motorcycle rider crashed and was transported to the hospital with serious injuries. The third motorcycle rider crashed and suffered minor injuries. The fourth motorcycle rider was able to avoid the crash and remained on scene.

The driver of the car was contacted by officers and identified as 33-year-old Jaimie Renee Arce who displayed signs and symptoms consistent with impairment. She was arrested and booked into jail.
