Fatal Collision in West Phoenix

(January 11, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives investigate a deadly crash that happened in west Phoenix late Wednesday night.

Phoenix Police officers responded to 6400 West Thomas Road on January 10, 2024, just after 10:00 p.m. When officers got to the scene and found one of the passengers, 38-year-old Ozzy Pena suffering from critical injuries. Pena was taken to the hospital for emergency treatment and later died as a result of his injuries.

Detectives responded to the scene and assumed the investigation. Investigators learned the car Pena was in was driven by an adult male who veered into the two-way center lane while driving west on Thomas Road. The car then struck a truck attempting to make a left turn. The driver of the car did not show signs of intoxication and was treated at the hospital for non-life-threatening injuries. Both the Driver and an adult female passenger of the involved truck were taken to the hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

Details of what led up to this deadly incident are still under investigation.
