Motorcyclist Died at Hospital After Collision

(June 9, 2023) A man operating a motorcycle died at a hospital after colliding with a car in North Phoenix late this morning.

On June 9, 2023, at about 10:43 a.m., patrol officers were called to the intersection of Cave Creek and Jomax Roads for a collision involving a motorcycle and a passenger car. When officers got the intersection, they found an adult man suffering from serious injuries. Phoenix Fire personal responded to the scene and took the man to the hospital where he did not survive his injuries.

Detectives with The Phoenix Police Vehicles Crimes Unit responded to take over the investigation. Detectives learned that the motorcycle driver struck the back of a stopped car while he was driving south on Cave Creek Road. The driver of the car stayed on scene and was evaluated for impairment, no signs were noted. Details of this incident remain part of an ongoing investigation.
