Man Killed in Stabbing Attack

(November 12, 2023) Phoenix Police were called to check on an injured person, who was later determined to be suffering from a fatal stab wound Saturday night.

At about 7:30 p.m. on November 11, 2023, officers responded to an injured person call for service. When officers got to the area of 3200 East Roosevelt Street, they found 33-year-old Milton Gonzales suffering from a stab wound. Phoenix Fire responded and provided lifesaving treatment to the hospital. Medical staff at the hospital were not able to save Gonzales' life.

Detectives responded to the scene and are seeking any information that would identify the suspect(s) involved in this violent attack.

Anyone with information regarding the identification of the suspect should call into Silent Witness at 480-Witness or 480-Testigo, your tip will stay anonymous.
