Two Men Arrested in Connection with Deadly Stabbing

(May 3, 2023) Phoenix homicide detectives arrest two adult men in connection with the stabbing death of an adult male victim early Wednesday morning in west Phoenix.

On May 3, 2023, just after 2:00 a.m., Phoenix officers responded to an injured person call in a neighborhood near 52nd Avenue and Baseline Road. When officers got to the scene, they found an adult man lying on the sidewalk suffering from a stab wound. Phoenix Fire personnel responded and took the man to a local hospital where he was not able to survive from his injuries.

Officers working the initial investigation were able to locate video from security cameras near the scene and saw two male suspects carrying the victim away from a nearby house. Five individuals from inside the house were detained and a search warrant was later served in connection with the homicide.

Detectives with the Phoenix Police Homicide Unit identified 19-year-old Trevion Wright as the suspect in the murder and later booked him into Maricopa County Jail under booking number T835552. Detectives were also able to identify 26-year-old Taylor Gordon as the other individual seen carrying the victim away from the scene. Gordon was booked into Maricopa County Jail under booking number T835550.
