Man Arrested in Serious Injury Collision

(December 25, 2023) Phoenix police detectives arrest a man responsible for a collision that occurred near 35th Avenue and McDowell Road that resulted in a juvenile suffering serious injuries.

This morning just before 11:30, officers responded to a call of a collision involving two trucks and a car near 35th Avenue and McDowell Road. The car was occupied by two adults and three juveniles. One of the juveniles was transported to the hospital with serious injuries. The rest of the occupants in the car were transported to the hospital as a precaution. Officers on scene contacted the driver of the first truck who was identified as 31-year-old Kenneth Lane and noticed signs of impairment. He was placed under arrest. The driver of the second truck remained on scene and was not injured.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Early information indicates Lane was driving north on 35th Avenue when he ran the red light at McDowell Road. Lane collided into the rear of a car and then collided into a truck. Both car and truck were stopped at the red light facing north. A search warrant was obtained to collect blood from Lane for analysis. The results are pending.

Kenneth Lane was booked into jail for aggravated assault and endangerment. Details about the collision remain part of the active and ongoing investigation.
